New Delhi, the 6th March 1967

G.S.R. 375/30/IDRA/67.—The following draft of certain rules which the Central Government proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by section 30 of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 (65 of 1951), is hereby published for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby, as required by sub-section (1) of the said section; and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after 12th April, 1967.

Any objections or suggestions which will be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date aforesaid will be considered by the Central Government.

Draft Rules

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Investigation of Industrial Undertakings (Procedure) Rules, 1966.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the investigation in respect of any scheduled industry, or industrial undertaking or undertakings referred to in section 15 of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 (65 of 1951).

3. Definitions.—In these rules,—

- (a) “Act” means the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 (65 of 1951);
- (b) “Investigator” means the person or body of persons appointed by the Central Government for the purpose of conducting any investigation under section 15 of the Act;
- (c) “investigation” means the investigation referred to in section 15 of the Act.

4. Procedure to be followed in making an investigation.—(1) In making an investigation, the Investigator shall, as far as practicable, follow the procedure set out below:

- (a) Where the investigation is ordered under all or any of the sub-clauses (i) to (iii) of clause (a) of section 15 of the Act, the Investigator shall, for the purpose of making a comparative study of the rate of production, collect facts and figures obtaining during the three years immediately preceding the year in which the investigation is so ordered, relating to the volume of production, the quality and price of any article or class of articles relatable to the concerned scheduled industry or manufactured or produced in the concerned undertaking or undertakings, as the case may be.
- (b) where the investigation is ordered under sub-clause (iv) of the said clause (a), the Investigator shall endeavour to find out the supply and demand position of the resources of national importance which are utilised in the scheduled industry, undertaking or undertakings, as the case may be, and also see whether any other resources could not be utilised in the scheduled industry, industrial undertaking or undertakings as a substitute.
- (c) Where the investigation has been ordered under clause (b) of the said section, the Investigator shall, in the course of the investigation, inter alia, examine—
 - (i) the financial position of the undertaking and see whether it has been prompt in making payments of taxes and discharging its other liabilities;
 - (ii) the composition of the management of the industrial undertaking and the relations thereof with labour;
 - (iii) the efforts made by the industrial undertaking to augment the supply of necessary raw materials;
 - (iv) the steps taken by the industrial undertaking to improve the quality or quantity of any article manufactured or produced in the undertaking;
 - (v) any other matter which the Investigator considers relevant or necessary for the purpose.

(2) The Investigator may, before commencing the investigation, call upon the Management of the undertaking or undertakings, the employees of such undertaking or undertakings, and such other persons as are concerned with the investigation to furnish to the Investigator written statements relating to the affairs of the scheduled industry, industrial undertaking or undertakings, as the case may be.

(3) Every written statement referred to in sub-rule (2) shall be signed by the person furnishing it.

(4) In support of the facts and figures, if any, collected in pursuance of sub-rule (1), the Investigator may, to the extent he considers it necessary, take evidence in writing (either in the form of oral testimony or affidavits) from persons connected with the scheduled industry, undertaking or undertakings concerned, whose evidence is, in his opinion, relevant for the purpose of the investigation.

5. Production of documents, registers etc.—Every person connected with the industry and every owner or person in charge of the undertaking or undertakings under investigation shall, when so required by the Investigator, produce or cause to be produced all such documents, registers and other materials pertaining to the industry, undertaking or undertakings as may be required for the purpose of the investigation.

6. Penalty for non-production of documents etc.—Whoever fails to produce or cause to be produced any document, register or other material which he is required to produce or cause to be produced under rule 5, shall be punishable under section 24 of the Act.

7. Opportunity for hearing.—The Investigator shall, before completion of his investigation, give the Management and the employees of the undertaking or undertakings in respect of which the investigation is ordered, reasonable opportunity of being heard including opportunity to adduce any evidence.

8. Submission of report.—(1) The Investigator shall, after completing the investigation, submit a report to the Central Government within the period specified therefor.

(2) In making the report referred to in sub-rule (1), the Investigator shall state—

- (i) whether the opinion referred to in section 15 of the Act formed by the Central Government is justified and correct;
- (ii) what are the causes for the state of affairs which necessitated the investigation; and
- (iii) how the state of affairs, if they still exist, can be remedied.

9. Power to regulate procedure.—The Investigator shall have the power to regulate his own procedure.
